THOUSANDS LOOK TOWARDS CANADA AS FUTURE HOME

The overseas betterment department which was organized to look after ex-service men and women in the British Isles, desiring to look further afield than the Old Country for their future living report an extraordinary rush of applicants. Already the waiting list exceeds 50,000, the bulk of whom are re-entering a preference for Canada. It is said that the list is being added to by about 300 daily, the majority of whom are the finest type of manhood and womanhood. In these figures are not included the ex-members of the colonial forces who have a separate preferential organization. Farming is the chief attraction of what before the war was called the submerged class. Departures are only governed by shipping facilities.

This is the season of the year when disease is liable to be most prevalent. The accumulation of the winter's refuse is exposed, and the general outlook consists of tin cans and ash heaps, but a little well-directed, properly applied energy will do much to remove this unsightliness and also assist in maintaining the health of the community.

ELITE THEATRE'S NEW ATTRACTIONS

In order to continue to show his faith in things in general, Manager Brunker of the Elite theatre is announcing a feature well worth noting. He has now completed arrangements whereby the films at this place of amusement will be changed three weekly, no less than eight reels being on the bill for Fridays and Saturdays, and six reels on all other nights of the week. As an offset to the H.C. of L. the prices have been considerably reduced and just by way of good measure a rest all serial "The Brass Bullet" which, by the way, has been shown to repeat houses in several of the cities, is being projected at each Wednesday and Thursday show.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ROSE

Sometime Sunday night Mr. William Rose passed to the great beyond. His death occurred at Bannockburn, where he had gone to work a short time before. Apparently he had died during his first sleep without any suffering. His heart had troubled him for a year or more, and death was due to this cause. He was 57 years of age. He leaves a widow, one son, Clinton, and two daughters, Myrtle and May, all of Marmora, and is also survived by one sister.

The funeral took place last Thursday, the service being conducted in the Methodist church by the Rev. W. P. Wood. Mrs. W. Gano, of town, is a sister-in-law, and to her The Star extends sympathies.

Our local shoe-repair man claims to sleep in keeping down the high cost of living. He is especially in regard to footwear. See his advt. on another page.

HEATH HAPPENINGS

The first shipment of hay arrived here this week and many farmers took advantage of this to get in a supply to help out over the spring work.

Last Wednesday about a dozen Heath people took the train for Wainwright to take in the big dance there.

Bill McBeth left here on Friday to take the duties of foreman at Unity. Another progressive step for Bill and we wish him all success.

We are pleased to state that Alex. McLennan is improving and we all hope for a speedy complete recovery.

J. Touchette sold two dandy teams of horses in Edgerton, and John Brophy sold one team. They both realized big prices so were well satisfied.

The dance at Arm Lake last Friday was largely attended and all report a real good time.

Heath boys are giving their first spring dance at Aspen on Friday, 23rd inst, and are desirous of seeing everybody out for the big time.

Mrs. Messier was a visitor to Chauvin this week.

Our farmers are all busy in the matter of preparing their seed grain and getting ready to forget their winter holiday. All are prophesying a bumper crop next fall.

Mrs. Sasmok arrived here to join her husband, who is section foreman here, and John is now very happy.

H. Sabourin and wife were visitors to the capital city this week.

A. M. Jury has started his seeding operations so spring is surely here at last.

Mrs. McBeth spent the week visiting her mother on the farm N.E. of town.

Tom Heathfield says he does not have to break the ice of Clear Lake any more for his morning dip.

The W.A. held a meeting at Mrs. McLeod's last week and decided to continue the good work here.

Get Together Spirit Plainly Evincend

When large numbers gather to arrange for visit of the Imperial Press Party this Summer--Community spirit only lying dormant--Enthusiasm aroused and glad-hand sticks right out Enthusiasm! why the gathering was simply bubbling over with it; which goes to prove this paper's contention a couple of weeks since that the community spirit was only lying dormant and that given an opportunity it would burst forth with all its power for good and work for the ultimate benefit of all concerned.

The meeting on Monday last was fairly representative town and country and was a gathering of positively the best bunch of organizers extant, and the business of arranging the opening of the Imperial Press Association was truly a revelation in the manner of its despatch.

At the opening of the meeting, W. Huntingford was elected to the chair and H.P. May was appointed to fill the office of secretary, and from then on things went with a swing.

The object of the gathering was shown to be the establishment of upwards of 100 members of the Imperial Press Association on September 2nd next, which body have decided that after their conference at Ottawa—which, by the way, is to include celebrities in journalism from all parts of the world—they will in the course of a Dominion-wide tour pay a visit to Wainwright.

Incidentally, this is the only stop the party will make at a purely farming point in this province and it was felt that the object of the gathering was to show the visitors some of the finest results of the work of the pioneer in this district, and with this end in view the program for their entertainment was finally adopted as follows:

1.30 to 2 p.m., detain; 2 to 4 p.m. visit the wheatfields, farms and schools; 4 to 7 p.m., visit Buffalo park; 7 to 9:30 p.m. refreshments and speeches, etc. The route for the auto drive was discussed and it was decided that it should cover a about twenty miles of the north and north-east country, this being the best land.

It was pointed out that although the date of the visit seems yet a long way off, the question of getting the roads in good shape and of having good stands of grain where possible along the line of the drive were matters which need attention right away, and for this reason the roads and fields committee is to be convened as soon as possible, the chairman and R. Aykroyd being appointed to bring this phase before the U.F.A. convention in town on May 1st.

The following were appointed by motion as a general committee: Messrs R. Aykroyd, Bean, Bowerman, Dawson, Fraser, Fowler, Greer, Hudson, May, McLean, Perkins, Stuart, Wislun and Watson with the Chairman and Secretary, and this will be split into sub-committees, each having power to add to their numbers, under the following heads: reception and autos, roads and fields, town decoration, schools, refreshments, park visit and publicity. Each of these will appoint a chairman who will be responsible for the proper carrying out of his committee's share of the day's proceedings. The state of the roads at the present time caused a few absentees, but these had signified their willingness to assist and everything augurs well for our district getting the finest advertisement it ever had upon the return of the party to the homes to again start filling the columns of practically every newspaper of note.

Appropos of the above, the following clipping may prove of interest.

"This a punk town; there ain't nothin' doin'" was the statement by a twelve year old boy regarding the prairie town near which he lived, and it well

POPULAR TEACHER HAS NASTY ACCIDENT

What might have proved serious, and was, to say the least unpleasant, was the experience which befell Mrs. Christina Jonsson on Monday night last. After visiting the show at the theatre, she in company with friends was proceeding home, when she accidentally stepped off the sidewalk into—just three feet, five inches (by actual measure) of very cold, uncomfortable snow-water. Con. W. Holtsbaum, A.P.P., just happened along and immediately plunged to the assistance of the distressed young lady, who was rushed home by other friends.

We all sincerely hope that no ill effects will follow this misfortune, other than perhaps a bad cold from the wetting she received.

The sale of home cooking on Saturday last, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's church met with very gratifying success—financial and otherwise. Perhaps the most noticeable feature was the large number of people of other denominations attending the sale. This community spirit is a healthy sign in Wainwright.

Spring's newest notes in millinery and expression here; high-class model hats; large transparent hats for dress wear; beautiful flowered hats; snug fitting turbans; and dainty small trimmed styles are now on display in the Wright Bldg., Third avenue. 21-4p

A cattle case, McLean vs. Nelson which involved the possession and disposal of a cow and heifer, was heard before his honor Judge Taylor in the district court and the decision gave the plaintiff $168.00 damages and costs.

Wm. Carsell and family of Waskawin will be arriving in town next week, he having accepted a position in the Wainwright hardware store.

MAYFIELD NEWS MAYFIELD LITERARY CLUB

A real good crowd turned out for the regular again last Wednesday, when a short program of vocal and instrumental music followed the routine business of the gathering.

A general discussion took place as to a farmers' organization for this district and the views of all on this subject received an airing.

The club are arranging for a whist drive and supper on the evening of the 28th.

We are all very pleased to see Phil Nealon looking so fit and well after his long stay in the east.

Jack Allison was over to the literary meeting on Wednesday and gave us a talk on his early experiences raising sheep.

EDGERTON ITEMS

Bloomington U.F.W.A. local held a meeting at the home of Mrs. McBrien with a good attendance. After business was finished a lovely lunch was served by hostess, after which we adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. Russell.

We extend a cordial invitation to all U.F.W.A. Locals to attend our meeting and to all farm women to join our Club, to help strengthen this great farmers' organization and to help us to keep the ball rolling in a right direction in a just cause.

The Edgerton W. I. held the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Morrow on Thursday last when there were 14 members present. Another new member was added to the institute. A report of the recent convention was the date of this notice the work of this great organization was flourishing and that lots of good work was done last year. At the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments.

MONTHLY MEETING OF LOCAL G.W.W.A.

The G.W.W.A. Monthly Meeting was held in Council chamber on Sat. April 10th. Among other important items of business was the forwarding of the Provincial Command of a resolution in the matter of the re-establishment of homes for returned soldiers and calling upon the Dominion executive to institute a nation-wide campaign by the means of pamphlets, parades, presbiterial, exhibits and meetings for the purpose of presenting soldiers' claims to the general public; also demanding a plebiscite to determine the will of the people on the question.

LOCAL NOTES

Miss Marion Coleman was a visitor to the city over the week end.

Mrs. G. Cross was a guest of Mrs. Robert Kenny for a few days last week.

After a week's visit to Edmonton, Mrs. H.V. Fieldhouse returned home last week.

The ladies of the W.A. are holding the annual spring sale of work on May 15th next.

Don't forget that J. W. Stuart is crying the H. Marshall sale on Friday, April 23rd.

M. G. Cardell is adding to the conveniences of his home by the addition of a dandy summer kitchen.

The Clar-Ru ladies lived right up to their reputation when they played for the Jazz dance last week.

Mrs. Harvey Wilson, who was spending the winter in B.C., returned home to town at the beginning of the week.

Miss Lily Simmons was in town on Wednesday last, on the big dance, returning to Irma on Thursday night.

His honor Judge Taylor and G. Thompson while in town for the district court last week were the house guests of Mrs. Fieldhouse.

S.R. Bowerman is announcing a sale on the McLean farm three miles north-east of Abundance, to take place on Saturday, May 1st.

J. Bryant returned from the city on Sunday's train accompanied by his bride. Of course Jack was wearing "the smile that won't come off."

Geo. L. Hudson M.L.A. returned to Edmonton on Saturday, and with Mrs. Hudson will soon be back to take up residence on his farm adjoining town.

That big dance in the theatre tomorrow night will sure be a "hum-dinger." The Wainwright 5-piece orchestra will provide the sweet strains and the L.O.D.E. are attending to the "eats."

FARM PROSPECTS

According to the telegraphic report from Saskatchewan seeding will commence within the next fifteen days in many parts of that province. Provided, of course, that there is no further setback in the weather. This will not be too bad, provided the growing season is favorable, and we do not get any early frosts. In Alberta we shall be later, especially in the northern and central districts.

In the north the outlook is not of the brightest while in central Alberta the situation is in the balance. An immediate break in winter conditions and quick drying of the soil will determine the policy of the farmers for heavier wheat seeding. If the break does not come there will be a general recourse to coarse grain seeding. And also in very many districts these crops will be seeded in a hasty manner, because there will be no time to do the necessary plowing which the early freeze-up last fall prevented at the time it should have been done. The way things are shaping with anything like an even break on weather conditions, the country should be able to come back this coming season with a bumper crop. The land is ready and there has been an unusually heavy winter precipitation. And no one would begrudge to the tried farmers a record breaking crop this year. They have suffered enough.

THE AMERICAN NAVY

The big row kicked up in American naval circles by Rear Admiral William B. Sims and the naval enquiry that has followed its wake, are giving the American people a short and humiliating course of instruction regarding the department presided over by that eminent pacifist, Josephus Daniels.

Rear Admiral Fletcher has testified at this enquiry that the vessels assigned to his command for escort duty were so slow that they could hardly keep up with the troopships they were supposed to protect. He declared that of fifteen vessels only three were fit to undertake a voyage across the Atlantic which they were going for off-shore duty. One of the largest ships under his command was so much slower than the vessels she was escorting that it was necessary for her commander to run a straight course, while the convoys zig-zagged.

Harris Lending declared that the war broke out admirals and officers of high rank in the American navy had begged Daniels to recruit men for the navy as there was a great dearth of all ranks. But Daniels would do nothing. Even after the United States entered the war he still remained dead to the crying needs of the navy.

Quite the most scandalous testimony was that brought by Rear Admiral Pinkett. Prior to the entry of the United States into the war he told Daniels that there could be no gunners without men to shoot the guns and there were no men trained for two years. He signed with the imperishable cabinet minister but could make absolutely no impression upon him.

"If we had been up against the Germans at the beginning of the war, we should be paying indemnity now," he declared, "all because we did not have trained men. We did not have the men, all because Mr. Daniels would not have them, and wouldn't let us do anything to get them."

LEGISLATURE

SAY NO MORE SUBDIVISIONS

Important legislation whereby the provincial utilities board will have complete control over all subdivisions of real estate in the future, was enacted last week by the legislature. The house with brief discussion passed a clause through the committee of the whole amending section 2 of the Act Respecting Subdivisions so that the sanction of the public utilities board will have to be obtained first before any subdivision can be made and placed on the market.

Hon. A. G. MacKay, minister of municipal affairs, said that the object of the clause was to prevent "wild cutting" in the future. The text of the clause reads:

"No plan of any land subdivided for the same in allotments shall be registered in the land titles office of any land registration district until the owner of such land or someone on his behalf shall have first obtained on order from the Board of Public Utility Com-order the registrar to register such plan. Before such order is granted the owner shall satisfy the said board that such land will or may reasonably be expected to be required for building purposes within a reasonable period of time, and the board may, in its discretion, grant or refuse such orders.

Another clause in the same amendment to the subdivision act was referred back for redrafting. This provides that when a subdivision is ordered cancelled, the taxes and assessments on the individual parcels shall become a charge upon the whole area in respect of which the plan is cancelled.

KYANISE VARNISH STAIN has proven the best Varnish Stain, now we have

KYANISE FLOOR ENAMEL. It is entirely different from regular floor paint. The oils and gums which enter into the manufacture of this enamel are of the highest quality obtainable, and both are treated and blended in such a way that the enamel dries from the bottom through to the upper surface; thus ensuring a coating that is dry underneath as well as on top. KYANISE Floor Enamel flows very freely under the brush.

KYANISE WASHABLE CELOID FINISH is another high-grade Wall, Furniture and Woodwork Finish, giving that so-much-desired effect of a Lustrous Semi-gloss Enamel. The delicately tinted shades are the result of a popular taste in harmonious, per-

THE BUSY BEE CLUB.

The members met at the home of Mrs. F. Fish on Saturday last, when 15 were present.
It was decided that at the meeting to be held next Saturday at the home of Mrs. Yeager, the girls will entertain their mothers, thus making it a mothers day. Mrs. Limpert has consented to judge the progress made in sewing, and for which two prizes are being given.

The 10 - 20 Titan International Tractor

IS THE IDEAL TRACTOR FOR YOUR FARM FOR EVERY KIND OF WORK THAT HORSES WILL DO.

It gets no sore shoulders, its effort need only be limited by your requirements; as long as it gets fuel, oil and water it gives power. At the height of a busy season you know what it means to have plenty of power so that you can take advantage of every favorable hour. In the morning full power is available in a moment—no feeding, watering and harnessing to be done.

A horse is capable of a continuous pull equal to about one-tenth of his weight. A Titan 10-20 has a drawbar pull at its high speed—2.5 miles per hour—of 1,800 pounds, or approximately one-third of its weight. It is this great or pulling capacity together with its ability to keep it up 24 hours a day, if necessary, that makes the tractor produce power at a lower cost than horses.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. Gulbraa, of Irma, at the Wainwright hospital, on April 15th a son.

With the bright sun and helpful wind the snow about town has now about all gone. Under continued favorable conditions seeding should start in the next two or three weeks.

All Presbyterians are asked to attend the doings at St. Andrew's church on Friday next at 8 p.m.

Harry Humphrey, an old-timer here, was in town from his farm at Onoway, Alberta, at the beginning of the week.

It is surely a misnomer these days to term Wainwright a dry town. Surely something can be done to release the pent-up water and assist pedestrians in getting around town. A few ditches would possibly prove a remedy.

The next regular meeting of the Wainwright U.F.W.A. will be held in the Park Hotel dining-room on May 1st, at 2.30 P.M. sharp. Mr. Turner kindly allowing the use of this for the summer months. All farm ladies are cordially invited.

Bill Hare had a moving job on Monday. He is now located on Seventh avenue.

F.B. Gano left for Elk Garden West Virginia on Sunday last.

The devotees of baseball are arranging to hold a meeting in the interests of this sport in the Council chamber at 8 p.m. on Friday evening next. All interested are asked to turn out to this.

Miss M. Coleman is out of town this week displaying her millinery "creations" to the good folks of Strone and Kilham on the C.P.R.

On Friday evening the anniversary of the arrival of Rev. J. B. Thompson is to be celebrated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. An excellent programme has been prepared and lunch will be served, and members and adherents are all asked to show their appreciation of the pastor's work by being present.

The football club's "big doings" are to be pulled off in the theatre tomorrow night at 8.15 when so attractive a program should see the house full. A dance follows the concert and the I.O.D.E. are catering for the supper.

Mr. Donald Eaton, who is the manager of the Hayward lumber yard at Chipman, was in town over the week end on a visit to his sister, Mrs. H. V. Fieldhouse.

The cadets of Wainwright will meet for re-organization at the school on Thursday at 7 p.m. Mr. Priestley reports that there are twenty full cadet uniforms ready for the season's work. Young men and boys of the teen age are all invited.

G. W. Bricks has left town to spend a couple of months' holiday with relatives in Troy, Indiana, U.S.
